GENERAL NOTES

Harry K. Thaw was granted a divorce last week from Evelyn Nesbit Thaw on the ground of infidelity.

Emma Goldman is at work at last. A hard hearted New York judge sentenced her to jail for talking too much. She works in the cleaning squad in the morning and sews on clothes for the state institution in the afternoon.

President Wilson has named William M. Ingraham, of Portland, Maine, for assistant secretary of war. The nomination, with Secretary of War Baker's approval, was sent to the senate Thursday.

The time-honored annual fight in the House over free government flower and vegetable seed was staged last week when an appropriation of $252,000 for the purchase of seeds was considered in the agricultural appropriation bill.

The six Villa bandits placed on trial at Deming, N. M., Thursday, charged with killing Charles D. Miller in the Columbus raid, were found guilty of murder in the first degree, according to word received at El Paso, Tex. The jury was out thirty minutes.

Residents of Winnipeg, Canada, showed their clocks ahead an hour and got to work an hour earlier Saturday and will quit an hour earlier. This was the day Winnipeg went on New York time, in a campaign to get more daylight. Germany will do the same thing May 1.

Field Marshall von der Goltz, commander-in-chief of the First Turkish Army and supervisor of the Sultan's military forces died recently in Turkey. An Amsterdam dispatch reported that a Berlin official message announces that Von der Goltz died of spotted fever at the Turkish army headquarters.

In the fight at Columbus, N. M., when Villa's bandits raided that town killing citizens and soldiers and burning the town, one of the invaders was so badly wounded that it became necessary to amputate his leg. Now a bunch of kindhearted women of Deming, N. M., have started a plan to buy him a cork leg.

The Journal Des Debats prints a Frontier News Agency dispatch received by way of Basel, Switzerland, alleging that a violent outbreak occurred before the Reichstag building during Dr. Karl Leinhardt's recent interpellation. It asserts that an enormous crowd had to be held back by troops, who finally fired upon the people, killing more than 200 persons. This dispatch is not confirmed from any other source.

Judge Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war, in an interview at Dallas, Tex., last week, declared in no uncertain terms his contempt for William J. Bryan. "Bryan's dereliction from the Wilson cabinet," said Judge Dickinson, "is the act of a traitor to the administration. My opinion of Bryan could hardly be diminished."

George H. Phillips, grain speculator, who died in Chicago Tuesday, was only 31 years old when he won a fortune by his operations in the corn pit and came out on top after a battle of wits with the oldest and most seasoned grain speculators of the country. This exploit won for him the title of "Corn King."

Ernest Schiller, alias Clarence R. Hudson, who forcibly took possession of the British steamer Matoppe off Sandy Hook on March 29, terrorized the crew and compelled the captain to change the ship's course, has been sentenced to life imprisonment in the United States District Court. He will be taken to the Federal prison at Atlanta in a few days.

Germans in Portugal Must Go.

Paris, April 22.—As a result of the entrance of Portugal into the war, Germans in that country have been notified to depart within five days, a Lisbon dispatch to the Temps says. This order applies to all Germans except men of military age and fitness, who are to be interned on Terceira Island, one of the Azores, where a state of siege has been declared.

All commercial transactions with Germans, the Temps says, are declared void, and treaties are abrogated. The property of German subjects is being sequestered and all further recognition of German ownership in industries is suspended.

Opening of the Band Concert Season.

Friday night the Butler band gave their first out door concert for the season of 1916.

On account of the chilly weather only a small crowd was out, but those who were on the street were amply rewarded by some very fine music. The solo by Herbert Wemott was one of the most pleasing numbers.

There will be a concert each Friday night throughout the summer.

SHORT STORIES

Of Local Interest, Clipped from Our Exchanges.

Melvin Reece, one of Hume's first settlers died at Mound City, Kas., last week says the Hume Telephone.

A horseshoe pitching league has been organized at Metz. A president, secretary and all the necessary officers have been elected.

Dr. Martin reports a daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Braden, east of the city. The cute little Miss arrived Thursday.—Merwin Sun.

Ricardo Martin, the great tenor with the Boston Opera Co., which was in Kansas City last week, is just plain Richard Martin and is a son of T. F. Martin of El Dorado Springs.

G. C. Stokes and Miss Dorothy Miller, both of Butler, were married in the rest room at the Court House Wednesday afternoon at 1:00 p. m. Rev. King Stark officiating.—Cass County News.

William E. Parrish, a brother of Mrs. Capt. Donohoe, of Appleton City, died at the home of a niece at Latour, Mo., last week, says the Appleton City Journal. The body was taken to Appleton City for burial.

Ralph Crighton was chosen mayor of Crighton at the recent election. Not often that a town and its chief official bear the same name. We hope Crighton will give Crighton an acceptable administration.—Ulrich Herald.

John Mitchell, a farmer living near Montrose, received injuries which resulted in his death when his team, which he was unhitching from the wagon, became frightened and ran away knocking him down and running the wagon over him says the Montrose Recorder.

Otto Piepmeyer and Miss Pearl Bailey, two well known young people of Appleton City, were married Wednesday evening, says the Appleton City Journal. They have gone to housekeeping on the old Magee place northwest of that city.

Billy Lee, the popular rural mail carrier, reached his half century mile post Tuesday and is yet a boy in life. As a proper function for the occasion he was banqueted on the fatted lamb and tendered several nice presents by his friends that evening at his home.—Merwin Sun.

Jake Payton, owner of the Livery barn, became owner of the Amoret Garage Saturday when he traded his coal mine southwest of town to Frank Daniels. Mr. Payton will operate the garage in connection with his barn. Mr. Daniels will continue to operate the coal shaft.—Amoret Leader.

The only paper in this part of the county, so far as heard from, that is not hit hard by the paper shortage, is the Metz Times, which has enough print paper on hand to last a year. A county editor with enough business sense to prepare for the present emergency ought to have enough business sense not to be a country editor.

Dr. Tuttle has received instructions for the organization of National Rifle Club in Adrian. Ten persons can organize such a club by organizing, adopting the constitution provided by the government and paying the necessary fee. The government will furnish rifles and ammunition for practice. Dr. Tuttle has full instructions for organization.—Adrian Journal.

Manager Harry K. West has organized a base ball team to be known as the cubs. The boys will practice Tuesday and Thursday of each week. Mr. West thinks he has a strong team and expects to put on some good games during the season. The fans are hoping for a good team and will do all they can to encourage the boys in their work.—Adrian Journal.

B. A. Biggerstaff, one of our former residents, now of Bates county, drove over last Wednesday to visit his nephew, Geo. C. Herrold. Biggerstaff a few years ago embarked in the Hereford cattle business, buying a "start" of a few of the best strains. Last week he sold his herd of 24 cows and 18 calves to a Fulton man for $4,500. He informed us that he has more than 2,000 bushels of corn on hand.—Ulrich Herald.

Appleton City in St. Clair county and Appleton City in Cape Girardeau county have been getting their mail mixed and they are a bit peeved about it. Appleton is the oldest town and Appleton City is the largest and each one wants the other to change its name to stop the confusion of the mail addressed to either place. The Appleton City Journal is getting signers to a petition to the postoffice department to change the name of Appleton to something else.

A wild peach recently discovered in China by the department's plant explorer, and now brought to this country for the first time, is considered of great interest, although its fruit is not desirable. Investigation in its native habitat showed that the roots of this plant are not as susceptible as our native peach to alkali in the soil, while it will withstand cold and does not require much moisture. Experiments are under way, therefore, to determine the usefulness of the rootstock of this peach for grafting with different hardy American varieties. If success is achieved, the specialists believe that they can develop peach trees which will make possible the raising of peaches in the southwestern or alkaline sections, and at the same time offer possibilities of peach cultivation in many droughty and cold regions, and possibly even into portions of Iowa beyond the northern edge of the present peach region.

The Dog took a package to the postoffice which weighed a pound and a half. They wanted 22 cents for carrying it to Kansas City. As the package was not worth enough to warrant paying so much postage, the Dog turned away. The man at the window said if the package had weighed four pounds it would go for nine cents. So the Dog came home and wrapped up a piece of brick, enough to make a total of over four pounds. The package then went for nine cents. If Uncle Sam takes so much pleasure in totting brick around that he is willing to pay thirteen cents for the privilege, why can't some one start a kiln by the postoffice and make money mailing bricks?—From the Topeka "Yellow Dog."

Between 800 and 900 cars of strawberries will be shipped out of Ozark berry regions during the season soon to open, according to Ashleigh P. Boles, a railroad horticultural expert. Last year the crop was 580 cars. The earliest berries are expected to come from the fields about Van Buren, Ark., which will begin shipping about April 25th.—Farmer and Stockman.

In buying feed for dairy cows the price is not the only point to consider. Bran at $1 a hundred is more expensive than cotton meal at $2. It is what the feed contains in the way of nutriment which really counts.

Death of Mrs. O. J. Tarleton.

Mrs. O. J. Tarleton died at her home on east Dakota street Friday, April 21, after a brief illness with blood poison.

Effie Hall was born in Mitchell county, Kansas, July 26, 1879. When quite young she moved with her family to Worth county in this state where she grew to womanhood. June 29, 1900, she was united in marriage to Oral Tarleton to which union were born four children, Loinel, Naomi, Wilson and Oral, all of whom survive to mourn the loss of a devoted, self-sacrificing mother. She is also survived by her father, three sisters and one brother.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. R. M. Talbert, were held from the Christian church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and the body laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery.

Col. Sharp Visits the Capitol.

Col. James N. Sharp, the representative from Bates county, was in the city yesterday visiting some of his old haunts. Col. Sharp, it will be remembered, was one of the powers in the last session of the Legislature. He came to be recognized as one of the keenest satirists in the lower body and he punctured more adverse legislation in that manner than any man in the assembly. He made an enviable record while here and it is understood that he will be returned by his Democratic constituents in Bates county without much opposition. He deserves re-election. His record was clean, and his ability generally recognized.—Jefferson City Daily Capitol News.
